Truly magical places for a special day

Hart-felt dining

The restaurant at the White Hart in Coggeshall, Essex, (whitehart-coggeshall.com) boasts an AA rosette and a recommendation in the Michelin guide, so you can be sure of a wedding breakfast to remember!

Did you know... The Church of England are in plans to open up their churches to including both the ceremony and reception. The bishop of Hereford says: "We love to see our church buildings used for more things, including wedding receptions." Find out more at yourchurchwedding.org

King of the castle

Hampton Court in Herefordshire (hamptoncourt.org.uk) is one of England's finest preserved castles. Their new package can accommodate up to 40 guests in 20 palatial guestrooms, with the chance to hire the castle as an exclusive venue.

Home from home

Step into a magical mixture of homeliness and luxury at Llys Meddyg in West Wales (llysmeddyg.com). We love this Georgian townhouse's quirky cellar bar, and its eight individually designed rooms for an intimate and home-from-home feel to your day!

To have and to Hall

Full of fine antiques and original oil paintings, a wedding at 18th century Brocket Hall (brocket-hall.co.uk) feels like taking a step back in history to take your vows. And if it's a sumptuous menu you're after, Chef Phil Thompson at the Auberge du Lac restaurant in Brocket Hall's parkland, has only this summer been awarded his Michelin Star!

Landmark for Milestones!

We love the idea of surprising your (by then!) husband on your milestone first anniversary with the fabulous 'Special Occasion' package from The Landmark London hotel (landmarklondon.co.uk). From only £275 excluding VAT per room per night, the deal includes Champagne and Strawberries delivered to your room and a full English breakfast!
